church are to have an all-day sewing bee at the parsonage today.

Yesterday in the Catholic churches was commemorated as the feast of the Exaltation of the Holy Cross.

A recently issued state bulletin notes that the number of species of insects aggregate between 4,000 and 10,000.

Occasionally a law-abiding farmer is seen cutting wild carrot in his fields, an example worth following.

The annual state convention of the Vasa Order of Lodges in Connecticut will be held in Waterbury October 28.

were killed by frost Thursday morning at Smith's greenhouse, where the mercury dropped to 21 degrees.

Morris Novick of Montville, who has bought the property of Arthur P.

and Alice M. Calver, of New London, plans to buy it and turn it into a truck farm.

Added to the demand on charitable societies for shoes and clothing for school children, come requirements for fuel and other comforts as the weather grows colder.

Miss Edith Wilcox from Japan spoke briefly on Thursday evening at the Central Baptist prayer meeting of the work she is doing there. She is connecting with a school for girls.

The cement binder was poured on the brick pavement on Thursday in entire district, and it will be in condition to be used by the first of the week, stated the street commissioner.

After being associated with W. H.

Smith in the state police, Mr. Smith has been assigned to the state police for a number of weeks. Lewellyn

P. Smith will return to his home in Lebanon the last of this month.

Congressman Higgins continues to show improvement at his home at Massapequa and is able to be about his grounds there. His condition, however, is such that he will continue to show a daily gain.

The statement from the New London paper to the effect that Willie Austin was being held by the state police when arrested appears to be untrue, as he was taken in for violation of the law concerning open mufflers.

To entertain the 1,500 expected at next month's state reunion, Hartford

G. A. B. men have asked the citizens to contribute from $500 to $800 and have appointed a committee of twelve citizens to select that amount.

The ancient town of Lebanon is now connected with Norwich by auto stage, which makes two trips daily. Begun as an experiment, it has proved so successful that it is to be continued.

The ride down takes about 45 minutes.

It was pointed out on Thursday that with the big improvement being made in the main street pavement, the property owners should join in and put the walks in as good a condition, for the street will be better than the walks if something is not done.

It is stated by Worcester papers that the women of All Saints' Episcopal parish have raised a fund to purchase the rich vestments which Bishop-elect Thomas F. Davis, formerly of Norwich, will require when he is consecrated October 18, St. Luke's day.

The fine for employing children without a certificate is $100, and $10 for failure to comply with other features of the law. It is understood that the Consumers' league was the prime mover in securing the passage of the law, which will do much in discouraging child labor.

Major Isaac Bromley, press agent of the New Haven road, Mrs. Bromley and Miss Bromley will remain for some time longer at their summer home at Eastern Point. Let us mention their winter home at New Haven.

prize at golf at the Eastern Point colony.

The W. C. T. U. is distributing a leaflet, An Appeal to the Christian Christian, which contains the new

Citizenship pledge, "God help me, will be held in the influence and my ballot in the interest of good government and good citizenship and will, when necessary, re-frice party affiliation for this purpose."

Five special trains of nine cars each, will carry about 1,000 bankers of this and other eastern states, with their friends, from New York to New Orleans to attend the thirty-sixth convention of the American Bankers' association in that city November 13-15.

After adjournment the bankers will make an inspection of the Panama coast.

AT THE AUDITORIUM.

Vaudeville and Motion Pictures.

In their three vaudeville acts and the selection of moving pictures which made up the bill at the Auditorium on Thursday, this popular house had one of its best programmes this season, eliciting well deserved applause for every number on the bill. Tony Haynes, an artist with the bones and with a variety of other objects from which he extracts pleasing melody, has a novelty musical act that is a clever turn, and is received with a good hand, while the other two actors show more the usual clever-ness in their dialogue and burlesque work, that makes their turn one of the favorites. The moving picture shows which are Mutt & Jeff, balance the bill out, and is a strong attraction for the good old Joe week.
